With the 95th Infantry Division: Cpl. Everett R. Rhodes, husband of Mrs. Lilly Ruth Rhodes, of Gay, West Virginia, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal of heroic achievement in connection with the military operations against the enemy during the 95th (Victory) Division's hard fighting at its bridgeheads across the Saar River from Sarrlautern. Cpl. Rhodes is a member of the Company "L" 378th Infantry Regiment. Upon hearing that the bodies of three comrades, killed by enemy fire, had not been recovered, Rhodes volunteered to search for them on the river bank. Conducting an exhausting search under violent artillery and mortar fire continuously pounded the area, Rhodes finally succeeded in locating the dead men and personally carried them across the river to the collecting point. Previous to military service, Cpl. Rhodes was employed as a bus driver. He entered the Army on July 4, 1942. (Jackson Herald, Friday, 13 April 1945)

Funeral services for Mrs. Clarence Archer were held from the family home in Ripley last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Cunningham, of Gay, in charge, assisted by Rev. W. L. Kelly, of Ripley. Burial was in Pine Hill cemetery. Mrs. Archer had been seriously ill for several days and death came at her home here last Thursday night. The family formerly lived at Gay but several years ago moved to Ripley where Mr. Archer has been employed by the United Fuel Company. Bertha Williams, daughter of Dan and Martha Williams, was born near Gay, February 16, 1884 and departed this life at her home in Ripley, December 31, 1936, aged 52 years, 10 months and 15 days. She was married to Clarence Archer on September 19, 1903 and to this union one son, Raymond C. Archer, was born. She was converted at about the age of sixteen years and united with the Elk Fork M. P. Church about the year 1905, of which of which she was still a member. She lived a consistent Christian life and bore her long suffering with Christian faith and patients. She never grew tired of reading her Bible and talking of her hope of gaining that blessed home which Christ has promised his children. She always looked on the bright side and tried to comfort those in distress of trouble. She leaves to mourn their loss her husband, son and daughter-in-law, her aged mother, her father having preceded her in death about twenty months ago, one brother, Otha Williams, of Kenna, and a host of friends. (Jackson Herald, 8 Jan 1937)

A fall in which she suffered severe injuries last Wednesday afternoon, proved fatal to Mrs. Sarah Price, 88 year old resident of Cottageville, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lottie Gilpin shortly after the noon hour Friday. Death was not expected. Mrs. Price fell on Wednesday while walking about the house and physicians said that she fractured the bones of her hip. The seriousness of her injury and her advanced age gave little hope to members of the family after the extent of the injuries were known. She was born September 27, 1847 and at the time of her death she was 88 years, 2 months and 2 days. She had been a member of the Cottageville United Brethren Church for many years and was a well known resident of that section of the county. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Bertha Parsons of Columbus, Ohio, Cora Gatchel and Lottie Gilpin, both of Cottageville. The funeral services were held at the Cottageville United Brethren Church last Sunday afternoon with the Rev. S. J. Westfall, pastor of the church delivering the funeral oration. Lawrence M. Ford, funeral director, had general charge of the arrangements. Interment was in the Blaine Memorial cemetery here. (Jackson Herald, 6 Dec 1935)

The War Department notified Mr. and Mrs. Ebb Crane, of Fairplain, in a message received last Saturday that their son, Golden Crane, had been wounded in action in the fighting in New Guinea on June 7. No further information concerning his condition has been received, but the message indicated that the wounds were such that he was expected to recover. Crane had been overseas in the southwest Pacific area of the war for many months, he being among the first of MacArthur's Southwest Pacific troops to land in that area when the General was planning his invasion of Jap held territory north of Australia. He was one among the early Jackson County boys to enlist in the service and after several months of training was sent overseas in the darkest days of the war and was with the troops in the Australian area who checked the Jap advance and has since gone on to engage in many battles in that area of the world and until June 7 had been lucky. More information concerning his condition is largely awaited by his parents, his relatives and his many friends. (Jackson Herald, Friday, 14 July 1944)

Seated before the open fire, happy and contented in the company of her daughters with whom she was laughing and talking, and apparently in perfect health, Mrs. Addie Parsons, postmistress at Parchment Valley for more than twenty years, suddenly exclaimed, "my head feels so light and is swimming" fell back in her chair, stricken with apoplexy; and expired within the hour, "without moving a muscle or gaining consciousness, at nine o'clock Wednesday evening, age 56. Neighbors were called in and Mr. Parsons, who had been summoned by telephone, was just starting to the home when she ceased breathing. Mrs. Parsons was the second daughter of Jacob and Celia Casto, of Fairplain. Thirty-four years ago she was united in marriage with George W. Parsons, seven years deceased. She was a pure hearted, noble woman, a devoted, self-sacrificing mother, a dutiful daughter and a true Christian lady, whose sudden death is a great shock to her family and a legion of friends. She had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for forty years. She is survived by six daughters, four brothers and three sisters, Mrs. D. J. Parsons of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Holly Kay of Danstown, Mrs. J. N. Parsons of Foster Chapel, Misses Freddie, Georgia and Dollie Parsons, at home; H. J. Casto of Ripley, H. L. and I. C. Cassto of Fairplain, Rev. Homer Casto of Pensacola, North Carolina, Mrs. P. S. Fisher of Mt. Tell, and Miss Sarah Casto of Fairplain. Mrs. D. J. Parsons, telegraphed from Columbus that she will be here tonight. The funeral will be held at eleven o'clock Saturday at Mt. Moriah. The remains will be interred beside those of her husband. J. M. Parsons, of Huntington,

A. L. Parsons of Parkersburg, and Mrs. Pearl Jones of Mason county, arrived last night to attend the obsequies. (clipping dated 1914)

F-1326. Beatrice Parsons born 28 Oct 1888, died 3 Feb 1951. On 23 Aug 1908 (JCMR) married Holly B. Kay, Sr. born ca 1885 son of Phlorius M. and Lenora Alice (Stewart) Kay. Children:

- g-1975. Virginia Kay married ..... Brooks
- g-1976. Holly B. Kay, Jr. born 12 June 1924, died 16 Jan 1944 WW II

Another name, that of Holly Kay, Jr., of Ravenswood, is added to Jackson County's roll of heroic dead in the present war this week with the announcement of the War Department in the form of a telegram to the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Holly Kay, Sr., that their son was dead in Italy. Three weeks ago the parents, who live on the Starkey farm, near Ravenswood, had received a telegram which told them that the son was "slightly wounded". That was the last message they had until the death message came. They had received a letter from the son on January 16, which he had written ten days previous to that date. Young Kay enlisted on March 23, 1943, and was never granted a furlough before he was sent overseas. He was among the soldiers making an Italian invasion and had been on the fighting front for several months. He was born in Evans on June 12, 1924 and was only 19 years old at the time of his death. The family and friends think that it may be possible that he might have been a patient in the hospital, which the German's bombed in Italy on February 7, but that is only a supposition since the War Department gave no further details. Others think it possible that the ship on which 1000 men were lost in the European zone could have been a hospital ship on which soldiers, who had been wounded, were being transferred back to base hospitals. Kay had been serving in a hospital corps. (Jackson Herald, Friday, 25 Feb 1944)

Funeral services for Pvt. Holly Kay, Jr., son of Mrs. and Mrs. Holly Kay of Ravenswood, were held from the EUB Church in Ripley Sunday afternoon with the Rev. Roy W. Fisher officiating and burial was in Pine Hill cemetery. He was born June 12, 1924 and entered the service on April 1, 1943 and eventually joined the forces of General Mark Clark in Italy where he was killed on January 16, 1944. Surviving are the parents; one brother, Monroe Kay of Parkersburg; and three sisters, Mrs. Olive Parsons of Ravenswood, Mrs. Adelaide Duff of Charleston, and Mrs. Virginia Brooks of Westerville, Ohio. part 27

Lola Margaret "Maggie" Sayre was born August 25, 1892 and departed this life October 22, 1968 at the age of 76 years, 1 month and 27 days. She was united in marriage to Virgil Delbert Sayre on August 25, 1912 and to this union were born seven children, three of whom preceded her in death. Survivors include three sons, Arnold, Cletis and Ledford, all of Evans; one daughter, Mrs. Ardella Click of Cottageville; two brothers, Jesse Fox of Dunbar and .....; and ..... grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren; and a host of friends and relatives. At the age of thirteen she joined the Long Bottom Methodist Church. She lived a true and faithful life until the end. The following poem, "The Watcher" by Margaret Widdemer is in remembrance to a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and friend: She always leaned to watch for us. Anxious if we were late. In winter by the window, In summer by the gate. And though we mocked her tenderly, Who had such foolish care. The long way home would seem more safe, Because she waited there. Her thoughts were all so full of us. She never could forget. And so I think that where she is, She must be watching yet. Waiting til we come home to her. Anxious if we are late - Watching from Heaven's window, Leaning from Heaven's gate.

Virgil Delbert Sayre was born May 2, 1890 and died Sept 20, 1982, aged 92 years, 4 months and 18 days. He was a son of Jasper and Martha Barnett Sayre and is the last of a family of seven. His brothers were Floyd, Sam, Hugh, John and Howard. He had one sister, Margaret Sayre Barnett. At the age of 15, he went to Boomer, WV, to work building railroads and from there was transferred to Columbus, Ohio, where he worked until the spring of 1912. He was united in marriage August 25, 1912 to Lola Margaret Fox and to this union was born seven children; Arnold, Cletis and Virgil, all of Evans, and one daughter, Ardella Click of Cottageville, survive. He has 12 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren, 2 step grandchildren. They lost their second son, Marion at the age of six and their daughter, Beulah, 4, the same summer. Their youngest boy, Tommy, died when he was twelve. Their home was a happy gathering place for young people of all ages and at different times made a home for ones who had no home. They lived on their Jackson County farm their entire lives until retirement with the exception of 1949-50 when he worked in Columbus. He will be missed by all who knew him, especially by Pete and Hazel with whom he made his home the past seven years. He loved Longview Church and attended there at times when was able. During his brief stay in the hospital, Rev. Skeens visited him and had prayer with him. At one of these times he joined in the ending of the prayer with "Praise the Lord". We give him back now to Grandma and his children over there whom he loved so well. (Memoriam)

Virgil Delbert Sayre, 92, of Evans died Monday at home following a long illness. A lifelong resident of Jackson county, he was the son of the late Jasper and Martha Barnett Sayre. He was a retired farmer and railroad employee. Surviving: three sons, Arnold "Ted" and Virgil "Babe" Sayre, all of Evans; one daughter, Ardella Click of Cottageville; 12 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren. Funeral services will be held Thursday, 2 p.m., at Longview United Methodist Church with the Rev. Armor Sayre officiating. Burial will be in Longview cemetery. Friends may call after 2 p.m. today (Wednesday) at Casto Funeral Home. (Jackson Herald, Wed., 22 Sept 1982)
