Funeral services for H. Paul Parsons, who was found dead in Ripley last Wednesday evening, were held at Oak Hill last Thursday afternoon at three o'clock with the Rev. Fred Slaughter, pastor of the Ripley United Brethren Church in charge. Parsons escaped from the Kessel Hospital, where he was being treated for diphtheria and was found dead on the steps of the Staats Ice Plant, a few minutes later. Physicians say that because of his weakened condition, the exertion possibly brought on a heart attack. The following obituary was read by Dr. Slaughter at the funeral:

H. Paul Parsons, son of the late Alexis Chapman and Minnie Parsons, was born June 13, 1897, and died November 06, 1935, aged 38 years, four months and 23 days. Early in life he became a school teacher in the public schools of his native county and taught in this and other counties of the state for 23 years. He was known generally as one of the most thorough and progressive and outstanding teachers in this section of the state and was the teacher of the first state standardized school in Jackson County and the second in Mason County. His schools always stood in front rank because he was an energetic and enthusiastic teacher who gave his whole heart and soul to his work. On June 02, 1918, he was married to Miss Mary McGrew of Ripley, and she and the following children survive: Marion Paul, Chapman and Jeanne. He was devoted to his family, always concerned about their welfare and happiness. In addition to the widow and three children, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. A. T. Parsons of Ripley, two brothers, Guy Parsons of Ripley, and Cleo Parsons of Cleveland, Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. W. S. Richards of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Pearl Jones of McKees Rock, Pa. Many other relatives and friends are left to mourn their loss. (Jackson Herald, 15 Nov 1935)

(Late Flash, Rockcastle, WV) "Aunt Lucretia" Barnett, Jackson County's oldest citizen who is in her one hundredth year, is believed to be recovering satisfactorily from her illness of the past few days. Members of the family reported her "much better" tonight. (Jackson Herald, 25 January 1935)

(Partial obituary of Lucretia Barnett of Rockcastle, almost one hundred years old. Page one of 8 Feb 1935 is not on microfilm) Asberry Barnett at whose home she died. She became ill several days ago and for several days it was feared that she might not recover. The latter part of last week she began to grow noticeably weaker, but until the end she was the same old "Aunt Lucretia" she had been for years, alert of mind and surprisingly strong of body considering her years. Mrs. Barnett was a native of Jackson County, and lived near Rockcastle the most of her long and useful life. She united with Barnett Chapel United Methodist Church at its organization in 1856 by presiding Elder Moses Michaels and pastor Rev. W. H. Miles, the class now being known as the Mount Olive Church on the Rockcastle United Brethren circuit. Mrs. Barnett's grandfather, William Casto, came from Lewis County about 1810 and established a home on Mill Creek, near the present Mt. Calvary Church, above Ripley, and her parents, Benjamin and Sallie Shinn Casto, came at the same time and settled on Parchment Creek near where O. J. Parsons now resides. Mrs. Barnett's brothers and sisters were: Joseph Casto, Solomon Casto, Phoebe Casto, who married Alexis Parsons, Sr., Michael Casto, Enoch Casto, Martha Casto, the latter married Elisha Stewart, Mason Casto, Edmond Casto, "Uncle Zan" Casto, as he is familiarly known, is the baby brother of Mrs. Barnett, resides at Evans and is the only one of this pioneer family living. Their family easily has the greatest number of relatives in the county among the many pioneer families whose posterity resides in the county. Nearly 80 years ago she married Enos Barnett and they founded a home on Thirteen Mile Creek where they reared a large and industrious family of children. Mr. Barnett has been dead for a great many years and several of their children are dead. Among the children were the late Asbury Barnett, who died a few years ago; Perry Barnett, now residing at Leon, Oscar Barnett of Bidwell, Ohio, Albert Barnett of Red House, Mrs. Elsworth Parsons of Kenna, Mrs. T. I. C. Parsons of Ripley, and Mrs. James Parsons of Leon. The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon with the Rev. C. C. Nichols of the Rockcastle United Brethren Church in charge and burial was in the Barnett cemetery. (Jackson Herald, 8 February 1935)

F. A. Casto, 92 years old, who was better known to his friends and relatives as "Uncle Az", died peacefully at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. M. See, in Point Pleasant shortly after eight o'clock last Sunday monring. He had been both deaf and blind for teh past nine years and during recent weeks his condition had been critical and death was not unexpected. Mrs. Casto died six years ago and since that time Mr. Casto had made his home with the daughter at whose home he died. For many years he was a resident of Ripley and owned a farm on Mill Creek. He is survived by by the following children: Mrs. Fannie See of Point Pleasant, Levi Casto of Point Pleasant, Kelly Casto of Ripley, Mrs. Lyda Byer of Sycamore, Mrs. Lydia Sayre of Addison, Ohio, and George and Virgie Casto of Ripley. The funeral services were held at the Epworth Church in Ripley on Tuesday morning of this week with the Rev. O. H. Carder, pastor of the Point Pleasant United Brethren Church, in charge, and the body was taken to the Mt. Calvary cemetery for burial. Mr. Casto was one of the pioneer settlers in this section of Jackson County, where he spent the greater part of his life. It was here that he reared his family and remained a resident until a few years ago when he sold his farm and went to spend the remainder of his life with his daughter.

Francis Asbury Casto was born December 24, 1844 and departed this life March 15, 1936, aged 91 years, 3 months and 22 days. He was united in marriage to Anna Staats on July 31, 1870 and to this union were born nine (9) children: Levi Casto, Frances See, Lida Sayre, Luda Bayer, George B. Casto, Kelly Casto, Virgil Casto, James

Curtis Casto, and Vernie E. Hickman. The last two named and his wife preceded him in death. He was born and reared near here and spent most of his life on his farm near Mt. Calvary MP Church, of which he was a faithful member. He was a son of Levi and Jannah Carney Casto and the last of a family of eleven children. (Jackson Herald, 20 March 1936)
